Christian HELP Foundation, Inc. receives St. Martin de Porres Award

Orlando, Florida, October 17, 2018

The Catholic Lawyers Guild of Central Florida announced their chosen award winner for the 2018 St. Martin de Porres award to be the 26-year old ministry of Christian HELP Employment and Resource Center.

The Award was given in a private luncheon and ceremony held at the St. James Catholic Cathedral in Orlando, FL.

The Award is named after St. Martin de Porres, patron saint of social justice, who devoted his life to the corporal works of mercy through the care of the sick and injured and selfless service to the poor. The St. Martin de Porres Award is given to an organization which demonstrates unbounded and helpful charity offering hope to those in need determined by the following criteria:

- Promoting understanding and respect;
- Extending friendship to all;
- Working and praying for peace

Located in Casselberry, FL with work also being done in Orange County and at remote sites, Christian HELP assists anyone in Central Florida in need of food, employment, encouragement, resources and prayer through their vast services and customized care programs. Through their mission of preventing homelessness, Christian HELP has given away over 15 million pounds of food and connected over 120,000 adults with a job.
